RID STOMACH OF GASES, SOURNESS, AND INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" Ends All Stomach Distress in Five Minutes

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat is like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas, causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.—Adv.

GAS COMPANY PAID DIVIDENDS AND TUCKED AWAY NICE SURPLUS

Frank Quayle Cannon Will Be Acting Manager While Harry Strange Fights for Allies

Frank Quayle Cannon, for the last year and a half manager of the commercial department of the Honolulu Gas Company, has been appointed acting manager of the company, and will assume office as soon as Harry L. Strange, the present manager, leaves for the mainland on his way to London, England, to enlist with the Allies.

The announcement of Mr. Cannon's temporary promotion was made today. Mr. Strange has been granted a leave of absence until January 1, 1917, and is planning to leave Honolulu in the steamer Niagara on March 3. He said today that he would go directly to London, England, and enlist immediately, with which regiment, however, he does not know. On the strength of his service during the Boer war under the British colors, Mr. Strange will receive a commission in the English army upon his enlistment, his local friends believe.

The annual meeting of the gas company was held last Tuesday, at which time the following officers were re-elected: W. R. Castle, president; F. J. Lowrey, vice-president; A. L. Castle, secretary; A. N. Campbell, treasurer; E. N. Campbell, auditor, and Harry L. Strange, manager. The decision to appoint Mr. Cannon acting manager also was made at that time. Retained Nice Surplus.

"The business of the company is in fine shape," Manager Strange said today. "It paid a dividend of seven per cent during 1915 and retained a surplus of $16,000."

There was a net gain of 293 as regards consumers during the year, making a total of 4551. On improvements and extensions the company expended $42,855, which included new mains, new services, meters and regulators. The total mileage of mains is now more than 63. A start was made on the installation of the new one-half million feet a day gas generator, located at the company's works at Iwilei.

The gross income increased from $150,890 in 1914 to $169,751 in 1915, a gain of $18,860, or 12.5 per cent. This makes an average increase during the last several years of 20 per cent each year. The directors have authorized during 1916 an expenditure on extensions to the sum of $100,355.

This includes general extensions in all districts, and new generators. Owing to the exceedingly bright prospects for the future, Manager Strange says, a reduction in the price of gas was made to take effect on January 1, this year. The directors also decided that the two-dollar minimum gas rate applying to Kaimuki consumers be reduced to one dollar.

INSECTS SHAPE AFRICAN HISTORY, SAYS TRAVELER

Insects are shaping the history and governing the development of Africa, according to J. C. Bridwell, who spoke at the Y. M. C. A. last night.

"White ants prevent the building of any kind of wooden structure; mosquitoes spread malaria, yellow fever and many other tropical diseases, and the tsetse fly has made it impossible for domesticated animals to live in parts of Africa," he declared. "Until modern science discovers an efficient method of exterminating insects, sections of Africa will be closed to civilization."

Mr. Bridwell gave an interesting account of the early days of the war in Africa, telling of the preparations, the fear of the natives, their hatred of the Germans, the rebellion in South Africa, and many other things that have not appeared in print.

AUDITOR GETS NO BILL FOR FORBES' TRIP TO CAPITAL

"Both the harbor board and the public utilities commission made arrangements for the expenses of my trip to Washington before I left Hawaii last November," said Charles R. Forbes today in regard to contentions by Judge A. A. Wilder that these boards can not pay for his trip.

The superintendent declines to enter into a discussion of the case at the present time, further than the foregoing statement.

Though territorial officials place little credence on the threats made by Judge Wilder in regard to the superintendent's expenses on his Washington visit, the warrants have not been drawn up yet by the auditor.

"I have received no expense account nor order from either the public utilities commission or the harbor board," said Auditor J. H. Fisher today.

Mr. Fisher intimated that he will not say whether the bills can or can not be paid by the two departments. He does not intend to dictate one way or the other, and says the responsibility of deciding is with the commissions, if there be any decision to make.

PLEA OF BEING POOR GETS MAN LIGHT FINE FOR USING OLD HORSE

His plea that he was a poor man with a wife and three children caused Judge Monsarrat to impose a fine of only $10 and costs on Agimura, charged by Miss Lucy K. Ward, humane of unfit for work. The horse which was brought to the police station and viewed by the court officers. The animal stood braced on its outspread, crooked legs, with its head hanging. Half a dozen big sores were scattered over its emaciated frame.

Miss Ward after the sentence went out to look for the proper officer to condemn and snoot the horse. Who has this authority was not decided this morning.

MR. FOSTER TO TELL TOURISTS OF HAWAII

By making arrangements with "The Ask Mr. Foster Information Service," a mainland travel bureau, the Promotion Committee has taken the first step toward an extended publicity campaign which will be nation-wide. Secretary A. P. Taylor has announced. Aside from personal service which will be given by the various agents of the bureau on the mainland, the arrangement includes writeups in the Foster Travel Magazine, and considerable publicity in others newspapers and periodicals. The literature of the Promotion Committee will be spread by the bureau in all prominent hotels and resorts.

A bill fixing the price of gas at 80 cents a thousand cubic feet was introduced in the New Jersey assembly.

"Did You Ever See the Like? No Wonder 'Gets-It' is the Biggest Selling Corn Cure in the World!"

that's it—feel how smooth the skin is? Well, that's where the corn was. Well, that beats all! That's the way "Gets-It" works on all corns, every corn, every time. It's the new, simple way of curing corns. You'll say good-bye to all foolish contraptions like bandaging, bandages, sticky tape, plaster, toe-eating salves, and grave-diggers such as knives, razors and scissors. "Gets-It" stops pain. Applied in 2 seconds. Never fails. Nothing to stick to, hurt or press on the corn.

"Gets-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in Honolulu and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Fort and Hotel streets, and Holister Drug Co.—Adv.

TRUST ESTATE'S INCOME TAX LAW INTERPRETED

An interpretation of the income tax law, as applied to trust estates, was issued yesterday by J. F. Haley, collector of internal revenue. "There has been some misunderstanding as to the amount of responsibility resting on fiduciaries and I hope the statement will clear it up," said Mr. Haley this morning. "There are an unusual number of large trust estates in the islands and a clear definition of the duties of fiduciaries was needed. Anyone wishing a copy of the interpretation of the law may have it by applying to me."
